

Decanter

— Reviewed by Clive Pursehouse

96
PTS | 2021 Seven Springs Vineyard Chardonnay “A revelatory Chardonnay... This wine has outstanding freshness and filigreed elegance that complement the depth and character of the site and the astute winemaking technique...2023 - 2037”

2021 Louise Vineyard Chardonnay “An opulent and showy Chardonnay even in its youth...plenty of texture and depth...real sophistication... 2023 - 2032” | 95
PTS

95
PTS | 2021 Louise Vineyard Pinot Noir “...This site has a lot of geological complexity, and this structured Pinot will go the distance. 2023 - 2034”

2021 Jessie Vineyard Pinot Noir “Winemaker (and vineyard manager) Daniel Estrin refers to the Jessie Vineyard Pinot as a velvet sledgehammer, saying ‘this site has power and intensity with smooth edges.’...2023 - 2033” | 95
PTS

95
PTS | 2021 Eileen Vineyard Pinot Noir “...The resulting wine is a study in Eola-Amity terroir, a combination of soil diversity and those famed winds that make this place possible...2023 - 2035”

2021 Marjorie Vineyard Pinot Noir “Planted in 1982, the estate’s oldest vines, this is a site that gives structure and length year in and year out... 2023 - 2035” | 94
PTS

93
PTS | 2021 Paul Gerrie Vineyard Pinot Noir “...The palate has a mouthwatering juiciness, with blue fruits, clove, cola and a minerality that turns between stoniness and spice. 2023 - 2035”

2021 Mt. Jefferson Cuvée Pinot Noir “...this is Cristom’s appellation wine, and it more than delivers, as they take the same approach they do with their single-vineyard bottlings...2023 - 2030” | 93
PTS

93
PTS | 2021 Eola-Amity Hills Chardonnay “Winemaker Daniel Estrin calls this wine one of tension and generosity...The palate is honeyed and shows that tension as well... 2023 - 2030”

