"The most delicate Oregon Pinot Noirs are like watercolors in a world of oil painting. Ethereal and fragile, they seem feather-brushed onto the canvas of flavor. Cristom's five Pinot Noirs are all like this..."

- Karen McNeil, author of 'The Wine Bible'

"Oregon's premier wine-growing region has primarily been known for Pinot Noir and Pinot Gris, but in recent years, its potential for world-class Chardonnay has been more and more apparent. Seek out producers such as Bethel Heights, Eyrie, Ponzi, Walter Scott, Cristom, and Evening Land."
